MEMBERSHIP

The Organ Society of W.A. was formed in 1966 to promote increased understanding of the organ and its music.

Membership is open to everyone. The Society's journal, In the Pipeline, is published and mailed out four times annually.

There is also a Society web site, www.oswa.org.au.

The Society presents recitals by local, interstate and overseas organists. Other activities include inspection of pipe organs, master classes, lectures and social functions. For most events where admission is charged, members are entitled to concessions.

Membership categories for 2019 are as follows:

Single membership	$70.00
Concession membership	$35.00
Country membership	$56.00
Family membership	$105.00

Subscription period is from 31st October each year. Pro rata rate is available for subscriptions commenced after October.

If you wish to make a donation, your funds will go towards supporting young organists. Donations are gratefully received.

Please complete the application form and return it together with your cheque or money order to:
